Discover Kamchatka as a Land of Volcanoes and Unique Ethnic Culture

KK-01

See the majesty of Kamchatka for yourself in this active but easy-paced, comprehensive two week trip. You will have a chance to discover the local ethnic culture, and visit a settlement of the Evenk people, the native population of Kamchatka, who have not changed their lifestyle since ancient times, and retain the culture of their ancestors to the present day. You will travel mainly by helicopter, as some of locations you will visit are not connected with the rest of the world by any transport route.

Take this unique opportunity to enjoy this breathtaking heli -sightseeing, hike within the crater of an active volcano, bathe in hot springs, stay in a reindeer herder's yurt, view wildlife, go fishing on Avacha bay, and much more.

This journey is a once-in-a-lifetime chance to see a part of the world untouched by civilization, and discover for yourself the purity and beauty of Kamchatka, which reminds us of the ancient world when people and nature lived happily together. You will have an unforgettable experience, coming back to nature and seeing how life was on our planet millions of years ago. See for yourself how Kamchatka has earned the title of Lost World!
